Max Planck (1858-1947)

Founder of the Quantum Theory,

Nobel Prize 1918

cutting-edge basic research, strictly curiosity-driven and quality oriented

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

MAX-PLANCK-GESELLSCHAFT

- Autonomy: scientists decide on science
- Harnack Principle: people, not programs
- Max Planck Institutes: flexible, dynamic, interdisciplinary research centers

- Long-term trust principle: significant, long term-guaranteed core funding for “high-risk” projects

Quality assurance by peers

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

- Attracting International Young Academics
  - ➢ International Max Planck Research Schools (IMPRS)
  - ➢ Max Planck Schools
  - ➢ Individual doctorate at MPI and Postdoc positions

- Achieving Excellence through International Networks, Brain Circulation, Research Collaboration
  - ➢ Partner Groups of Max Planck Institutes worldwide
  - ➢ Tandem Groups of Max Planck Institutes in Latin America
  - ➢ Joint Research Collaboration Projects with MPIs
  - ➢ Max Planck Centers

JOVENS PESQUISADORES / MAX PLANCK TANDEM GROUPS

Young highly qualified investigators (with at least two years of highly successful postdoctoral experience) establish an independent Tandem Research Group at universities or research institutes in the state of São Paulo in collaboration with a Max Planck Institute for an initial period of 5 years (+1 year extension is possible)

➢ FUNDING

- FAPESP: Young Investigator Grant (YIG)
- Host institution in the state of São Paulo hosts the group;
- Max Planck Institute provides scientific advice, support, training and access to facilitys 5 years (+ 1 year extension possible)

➢ APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- Check the requirements at www.fapesp.br/en/6251
- Letter of support signed by a Director at a Max Planck Institute
- Endorsement letter of host institution in the state of São Paulo
- Submit complete documents to FAPESP's SAGe platform

➢ AREAS OF INTEREST:

- Astronomy, chemistry, physics, geosciences, mathematics, computer sciences and engineering;
- Life sciences and medicine;
- Arts and humanities, social and cognitive sciences.

➢ DEADLINE: May 30th, 2025

MAX PLANCK – FAPESP JOINT RESEARCH PROJECTS

Bilateral research projects between investigators from Max Planck Institutes and from research institutions in the State of São Paulo (Brazil) in any scientific domain (focused on basic scientific research) with a duration of up to 36 months

➢ FUNDING

- FAPESP: Up to 200 thousand R$ per year
- Max Planck Institute provide equivalent resources of the same value in the form of access to infrastructure and special equipment, funding of human resources, travel expenses

➢ ELIGIBILITY OF RESEARCHERS

- FAPESP: Researchers with ongoing project funded by FAPESP
- Max Planck: Directors or Group Leaders of a MPI

➢ APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- FAPESP researchers should consult FAPESP about their eligibility for the grant: chamada-maxplanckinstitutes@fapesp.br
- Letter of support signed by a Director at a Max Planck Institute
- MPI researcher: Register on SAGe platform
- FAPESP researcher submits the collaborative proposal for both on SAGe platform

PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR RESEARCH FUNDING & INNOVATION

Manuel Steidle,
Head Fraunhofer Liaison Office Brazil
March 26, 2025

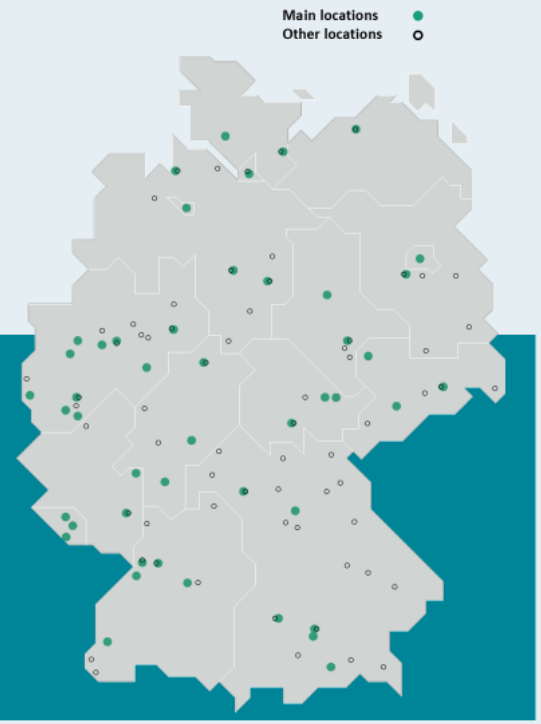
Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft at a glance

Application-oriented research for the benefit of industry and society is our mission

32,000 employees
(04/2024)

76 institutes and research institutions
(04/2024)

€ 3.4bn (BRL 21.9bn) total business volume
(04/2024)



- Applied research is the foundation of our organization.
- We partner with companies to transform original ideas into innovations that benefit society and strengthen both the German and the European economies.

The Role of Fraunhofer

Our organization is closely connected to universities and the industry with a focus on applied research

Knowledge in basic research…

…transferred to applied research…

…to gain sustainable added value through innovation

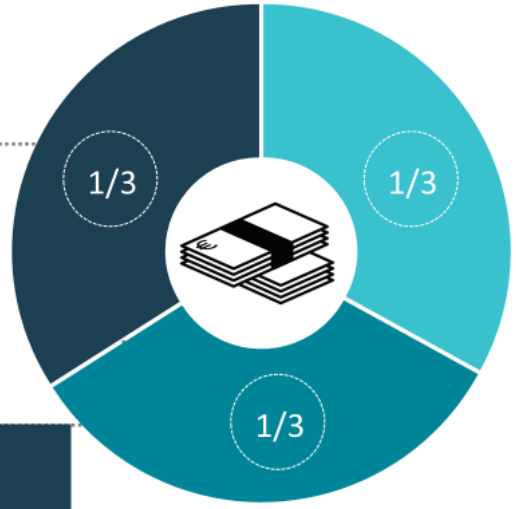
Autonomy of institutes + simple corporate rules and strong branding

The Fraunhofer Model

Our funding model is unique for research organizations and aims to facilitate transfer

Contract research is the mainstay of Fraunhofer's business.
Based on the Fraunhofer funding model, three areas each contribute around one third to the organization's finances:



1. Pre-competitive research funded with base funding
2. Publicly funded research projects
3. Research directly contracted by industry

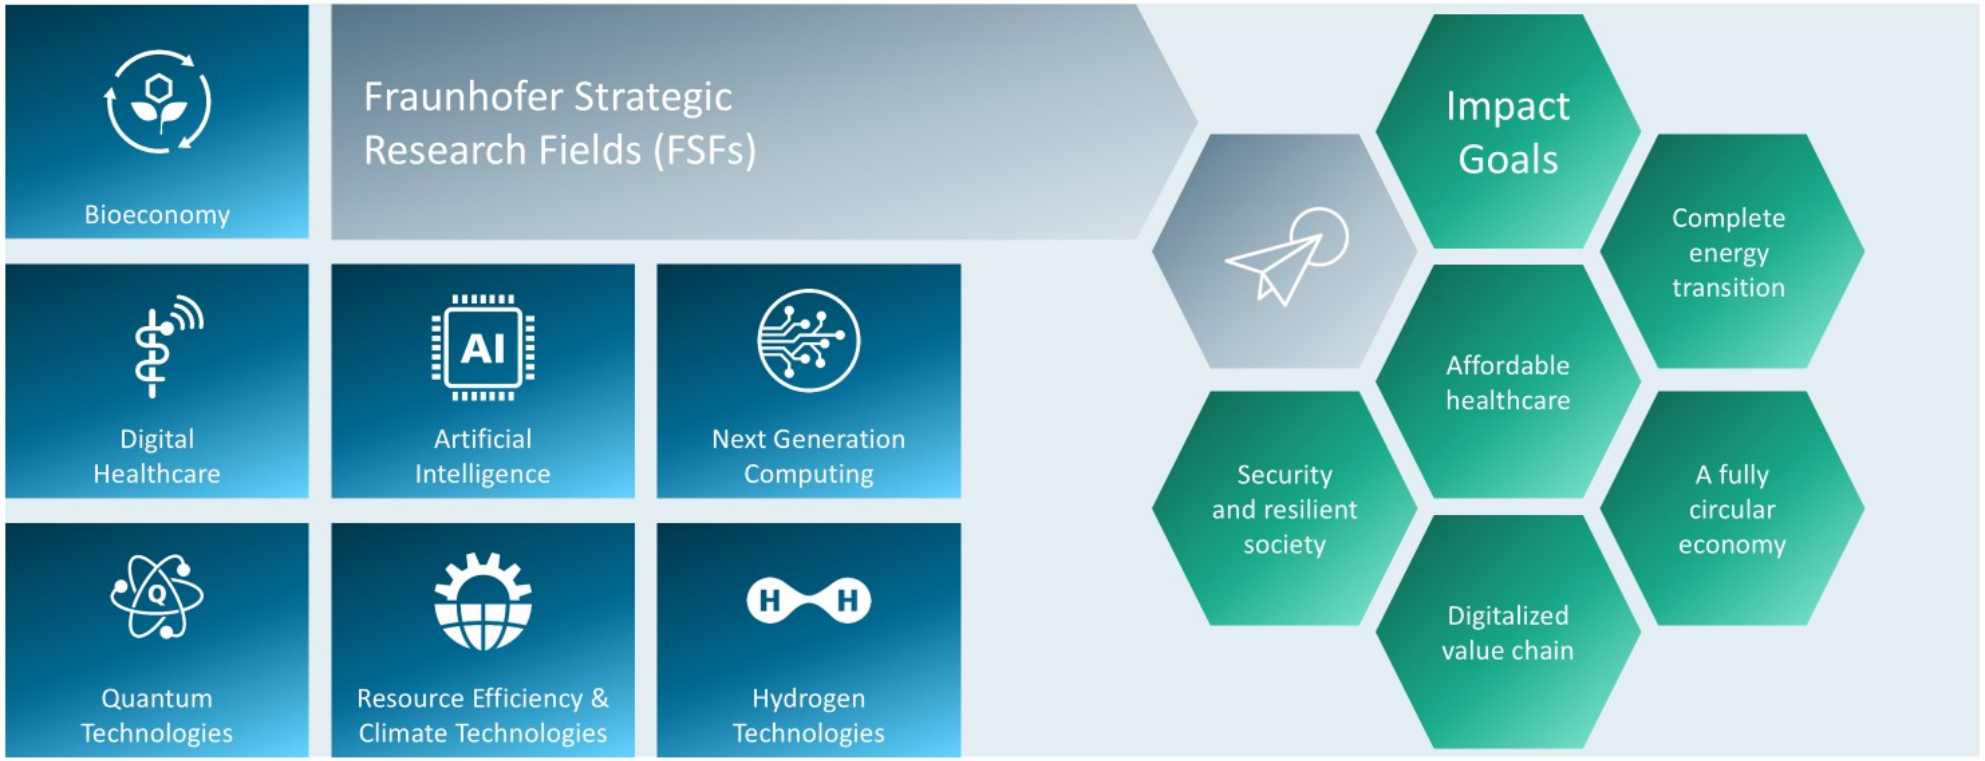
The Fraunhofer Strategic Research Fields

Our research portfolio is focused to achieve our impact goals



Fraunhofer International

Our global network and cooperation supported by Fraunhofer HQ extends to Brazil

8 independent Fraunhofer affiliates outside Germany
1 new affiliate is currently being established

Active cooperations with partners in ~90 countries

5 Representative Offices build connections to local markets worldwide
